The hotel La Source offers you a glimpse into the France of old - a peaceful paradise in a classical setting.

Every bedroom has been decorated and furnished in keeping with the traditional style, yet every room is fully equipped to modern standards, with TV, telephone, and hair dryer.

The swimming pool, straddled by a shady bower of wisteria, enables guests to savour all delights of summer.

We also offer a tennis court and a sports ground (volleyball, football) and table tennis and petanque to add that french flavour ! It is also possible to do horse trekking from the village and watersports such as sailing and windsurfing are available at nearby Lac du Salagou as well as the opportunity into canoe down the Hérault.

La Source provides the perfect base from which to explore the area, located close to Mediterranean beaches, mountains, the Herault Gorge, old villages, and caves, yet only a 30 minute drive from the stunning city of Montpellier.
